C.O.A.S.T.

Lisa Kiwak, 732-872-0111, Coast@cleanoceanaction.org

Another Successful Summer of C.O.A.S.T.

COA expresses sincere thanks and appreciation to volunteers and towns who participated in this summer's COAST campaign. Throughout July and August, COAST tables were situated at 28 different locations in Monmouth and Ocean Counties. Determined and dedicated volunteers, businesses, beach clubs, and towns raised over $3,300 for COA's ongoing efforts to stop ocean pollution. In addition, over 1,300 citizens signed petitions and sent nearly 100 postcards to elected officials in support of the Clean Ocean Zone, a campaign to permanently protect the ocean waters off the NY/NJ Coast. Working together, citizens, organizations, municipalities, and businesses share information on a much broader scale and take effective action to be the solution to ocean pollution.

COA STAFF NEWS

Fond Farewell to Summer Interns

It is that time of year when COA says good-bye and smooth sailing to summer interns. Lisa Kiwak, 2005 COAST Intern, coordinated a successful campaign this summer, educating hundreds of residents and visitors about the Clean Ocean Zone. Lisa is embarking on a career in journalism and communications.

Chris Ackerman, 2005 Legal Intern, worked on a variety of projects, including questions pertaining to the Clean Water Act, the development of a framework for municipalities on stormwater issues, review of offshore wind turbines, and a proposal to encourage solar panels for housing units. Chris returns to Vermont Law School this fall.

Emily Jack-Scott, Marine Science Intern at the Institute of Coastal Education (ICE) in Wildwood, greeted and educated ICE visitors about exhibits and marine life. Emily also assisted at special events, staffed COAST tables in Cape May, Atlantic City, and North Wildwood, and helped with educational programs. Emily returns to Yale University for her second year of environmental studies.

HAPPY 94TH BIRTHDAY, OLGA HOFF!

Clean Ocean Action salutes Olga Hoff, a true ocean advocate, who celebrated her 94th birthday in August. As a dedicated volunteer for COA, Olga is a leader in the summer Clean Ocean Action Shore Tips (C.O.A.S.T.) campaign, and a great voice for the ocean. During C.O.A.S.T., Olga educates children and adults about ocean pollution at the Ship Ahoy Beach Club, where she is a member. Also, Olga tops the list of COA T-shirt sales year after year! Olga participates in other programs and events as well, helping to engage people in being the solution to ocean pollution.

Olga is remarkable and an inspiration! Here's to you, Olga!

At the 2005 Family Luau in May, Olga speaks with NJDEP Commissioner Bradley Campbell and COA's Cindy Zipf about her concerns for the ocean.
